THE IRISH REPUBLICANS

Hold an Impromptu Mass-Meeting in New York.

Reasons Why They are Friendly to James G. Elaine.

Convention of the Independent Labor Party of Ireland.

New York, July 30.—A full-bellied band in front of Chickerling Hall collected a large crowd at the corner of Fifth avenue and Eighteenth street.

At 8 o'clock a stout gentleman called the meeting to order and introduced Mr. Austin K. Ford, an untitled young gentleman.

Mr. Ford, an untitled young gentleman, refused to come with the order and from New York headquarters for an adjournment till September, saying no individual or committee has authority to postpone over one hundred delegates already on the ground.

Wherever, said he, "under the broad heavens there is not a spot supported by the aristocracy of England, that party should have an enemy in every Irish heart."

What the upshot of this episode was Mr. Pepper did not say, but in connection therewith he said: "I hope that the cable to-night."

At the conclusion of the gentleman's remarks the band played the "Red, White and Blue" of the United States.

He introduced Mr. Henry Carver Baird, who, he said, was the greatest of the Irish rebels, and Mr. Baird admitted the fact at the beginning of his speech.

After "Yankee D-d" by the band the meeting adjourned.

Independent Labor Party.

CLEVELAND, July 30.—A large batch of delegates to the National Anti-Monopoly League have arrived, including William A. Carney, President of the Independent Labor party.

At 8 o'clock the first intimation of the convention of the Independent Labor party.

A press dispatch reached the city signed by Mr. J. Keogh and James Rooney, of New York, stating that the Convention at the National Labor party, which was announced to take place at New York, had postponed until September 1.

Chicago, July 30.—Delegates to the Convention already on the ground.

lingly take place as originally contemplated. What that amount to is hard to tell until the affair really does come off, for those who should know all about it are rather cautious and even contradictory in the statements they make about it.

The conference also appointed a National Committee of which John J. Rooney, of Brooklyn, New York, was elected Chairman, and W. A. Carney, of New York, Secretary.

Mr. Carney was asked to tell what was the object of the Labor Convention.

MYSTERY OF MYSTERIES.

Singular Disappearance of a Woman and Her Benefactor.

CLEVELAND, July 30.—About two weeks ago a well dressed woman, accompanied by two children, one a boy four years old, and the other a girl six weeks, called upon a Mrs. Switzer, living on Gilbert street, and asked to be permitted to remain for a day or two. The woman said she had quarreled with her husband, she was allowed to stay, and the next day disappeared. Five days ago Mrs. Switzer and her husband also disappeared. They left the children in the house, which is some distance from any other. The piteous wails of the little boy were heard by a poverty-stricken man who was investigating. The boy was nearly dead, while the baby was so ill that it died a few hours afterward. The boy is being well cared for and will probably recover. The woman was buried by the city authorities. No tidings can be learned from either the mother or the Switzers.

THE CHOLERA PLAQUE.

PARIS, July 30.—The weather continues cool at Marseilles and Toulon, and there is a decrease in the rate of mortality in both these cities. At Marseilles last night, there were only nine deaths, a marked decrease compared with the death rate of the past several nights. At Toulon there were thirteen deaths, from cholera during the night, fifteen being reported at Arles and Aix, however, there has been an increase in the number of deaths from the dread disease, fifteen being reported at the former and ten at the latter place.

The conference was well attended, the principal speaker being Mr. Foster, Earl of Epsom, and Mr. Charles Tupper, Canadian Minister of Railways and Canals.

Alleged Dynamiter's Trials.

CINCINNATI, July 30.—The National Photographers' Convention is in session in this city, with W. H. Holmes, of New York, in the chair, and Leo Weingartner, of Cincinnati, as Secretary. Nearly one thousand delegates are present from every part of the United States. The manufacturers and dealers in photographic supplies have their exhibition in the Music Hall proper and the corridor surrounding it.

A "Clever Draw."

PHILADELPHIA, July 30.—John Britt and Thomas Murray, middle-weight boxers of Cornwall, Pa., were in the city today for the purpose of making a right examination of four hundred half-breed cattle which arrived from Indian Territory Monday. The animals are heavily afflicted with bloody murrain, a precursor of Texas fever, and it is probable the majority will be ordered shot.

To Toy Gently With Fortune.
To toy with fortune, if at not too great a risk, is one of the pleasantest of past-times. The wild gambling in stocks on Wall street brings to the speculator not near as healthy an exercise as the investment in the drawings of the Louisiana State Lottery, at New Orleans, La., of $5 for a whole or proportionately for fractional parts. The 171st grand monthly drawing will occur on Tuesday, August 12th, and any information can be had on application to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La.

two points.

ton, is visiting Mr. Frank Winn, of Washington.

Misses Maggie Fitzgerald and Ella
Flynn, after spending several weeks with friends in this city, returned to

Try It Yourself.
The proof of the pudding is not in chewing the string, but in buying an opportunity to try the article yourself. George T. Wood, the great cough and lung specialist, has the Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup for each
who is afflicted with Coughs, Colds, Consumption or any Lung Affection.

ADJACENT COUNTIES.

MUSK, FAYETTE COUNTY.
For the past two weeks Mrs. Kent, of Fayette, has been visiting her two of the most charming young girls. It is never been out of the county which will greatly benefit the exquisite beauty of Mason, and Miss Anna Thompson, a pretty and fashionable little lady of Paris. Miss Kent's charming daughter, Miss Belle, is visiting at Mr. Kent's, and is quite a "bulle" with the young ladies.

COUNTY POINTS.

MAY LICK.
Major A. M. Peed, of Sharpburg, is visiting his son, Dr. J. J. Peed.
The colored folks Black. Meeting last Sunday was largely attended and good order prevailed.

Miss Belle Taylor, a most bewitching young lady of Orangeburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs.
Powers.
We had good rains last Friday, Saturday and Sunday, which will greatly benefit the corn crops and garden.

at Hillsdale Church, on Friday night, at two missions, one to educate the deaf and the other the blind.

A dancing school is talked of in this place
also a projected meeting at the Christian Church in the next fortnight. The school will be for the benefit of the deaf and the blind.

Quite a pleasant and enjoyable time was had at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, in this place on Saturday the 26th inst.,
the occasion being the wedding of their golden wedding, having been married fifty years. The guests were numerous, handsome and of the pure golden metal. May their lives yet be long and happy.

THE LILY HAS LEFT US

Probably Gone to England to Obtain a Divorce.

Freddie Gehbard the Last to Bid Her: Good-bye—Gossip that She and Freddie Will Marry on Her Return Next Winter.

New York, July 30.—Mrs. Langtry's hurried departure for England last Saturday, coupled with the fact that Freddie Gehbard was the last person to bid her good-bye, has given rise to a good deal of comment. A well known society man said yesterday: "The Lily has gone to London to sign papers necessary to procure a divorce. The decree will be granted in a few weeks. When she comes back next February she will be Mrs. Langtry no longer, and soon after you will see a little notice that Freddie and the Lily have been married."

"On what grounds will Mrs. Langtry obtain a divorce?"

"That's a conundrum. But I suppose incompatibility of temper is as potent a reason in London as in Chicago. Those who know Mrs. Langtry will say she was a temper. I shouldn't be surprised to learn that her husband is incompatible with her."

"You think, then, that Mr. Gehbard's attentions were serious?"

"I'm sure of it, and I honor him for it. He has stood up like a man through the moon heaped upon him. I believe the lady inspired him with sincere affection and that he never forgot the respect due her. Mrs. Gehbard, like other ladies who have been divorced with the purpose to bestow their hands on men they love, she will be accepted and her reception will be the most largely at tented of in New York."

A member of the Union Club, who was subsequently seen, did not wish to discuss the "love affairs" of his fellow members. "I am always ready and willing," he said, "to give you information about club matters in general, but I keep my hand out of their love matters. It's a delicate subject, you know. I'm not at all impartial to that sort of thing myself, and, by jove, suppose I was to find myself paraded in the papers?"

The thought overcame him, and, fearful lest he should make some rash disclosure, he walked rapidly away.

On the 10th, in Union Square, the actors generally were inclined to discredit the idea that Mrs. Langtry was to blossom out as Mrs. Gehbard and retire from the stage.

John Matthews voiced the sentiment of his brethren when he said: "Mrs. Langtry has had more gratuitous advertising on account of Gehbard than any woman who has ever appeared on the stage. When she first came here, a lady who had been treated with distinction by the Prince of Wales and society in England, and an artist, such as Mrs. Perry, Belmont, Gehbard and others regarded it their duty to befriend her. Simple American courtesy was distorted into a scandal. Well, Mrs. Langtry has benefited by it to the amount of $100,000. She has come home now to her husband. I believe she will stay there. I believe she is a true wife and without a shadow of reproach."
